ARE YOU WILLING TO RISK YOUR REPUTATION?

Choose your investigator wisely. NOBLE v. SEARS & ROEBUCK (1973) held the employer of a licensed investigator liable for the torts committed by a contracted investigator. The repercussions of choosing poorly could range from damage to your case, loss of a valued client, to costly litigation for the P.I.'s tortious acts.

- ◆ Attorney Kenneth Starr hired an unlicensed "investigator" that was caught forging witness signatures & fabricating statements in a high profile case.
- ◆ Hewlett Packard paid a 14.5 million dollar settlement after employing P.I.s that stole board member identities to access confidential records.
- ◆ Shell Oil Company paid a six figure settlement due to a flawed investigation.

EXPERT TESTIMONY

Randall Alexander, the owner of LSIS is recognized as a Subject Matter Expert by the Bureau of Security and Investigative Services (a division of the California Department of Consumer Affairs), the state licensing and disciplinary agency for California licensed private investigators.

Out of 10,000 state licensed investigators, Randall, along with six other investigators were selected to assist in the review, update and rewrite of the private investigator state licensing exam which determines competency for licensure.

Randall has testified in the state and federal court systems. Additionally, Randall has served as an industry expert in the review of private investigator work product.

Randall routinely receives continuing education as both a Paralegal and a Licensed Investigator, to further enhance his knowledge of litigation laws and their elements, Private Investigator procedures and industry updates.

Randall has been a member in good standing with the California Association of Licensed Investigators since 1999. Randall has served the industry as a District Governor for three and a half years, coordinating monthly continuing education for his peers. Additionally, Randall has served on the Legislative Committee addressing legislative issues locally and at the capital in Sacramento. Randall served on the Education Committee coordinating annual statewide conferences for the association with a membership in excess of 1,500 investigators.

Hunt & Adams

"Randall assisted our firm in the trial of a complex personal injury case arising out of a domestic battery. Numerous witnesses had provided multiple, often conflicting statements to the responding police officers, and later to detectives, an insurance investigator, and in depositions.

We employed Randall for both his Paralegal and Investigative expertise to review, compare and contrast all statements and deposition testimony. He found repeated contradictions in the witness statements, allowing me to effectively attack the credibility of these witnesses at trial. Additionally, Randall took photographs of the scene and created a scene diagram which we enlarged for use in trial which visually demonstrated the witness locations with measured distances from the incident, supporting our case.

Randall's work in both contexts was exceptional, as was his reliability, integrity and professionalism.

I would not hesitate to recommend Randall in either capacity in any civil or criminal litigation."

CLEAR AND COMPELLING EVIDENCE

You need professional, clear and compelling evidence when presenting your case. We extract photographic stills from video and incorporate them into an evidence template to accompany the report. This format allows you to quickly reference key points without setting up or replaying the video again. The easily referenced photo still leaves a lasting impression, where video can be fleeting.

The mother (left) stated she lived with her parents, worked only one day a week at the salon, making around $600 a month. Therefore she took our client back to court requesting a support modification to increase support from $1,500 to $2500 a month.

Our investigation revealed she worked 5 days a week, and was so busy, she booked appointments 1 to 2 weeks in advance, operating a cash business charging $40 to $100 for services (not including tips).

Upon learning our investigation revealed she made thousands a month in unclaimed income, she immediately settled, dropping all monthly support, reducing it to zero, apparently to keep our report & evidence out of court records for tax reasons.

The image right is an example of our photo evidence format (8.5 x 11) which accompanies reports.
